ELECTION RETURNS.

The Election in New York

NEW YORK, Nov [7].—Business is almost entirely suspended, only the smaller retail shops being open. All banks and the several exchanges are closed as well as the offices of the national, State and city governments. Liquor saloons in the vicinity of voting places are shut, but in the little houses around the corner is found all the fuel needed to keep up the fire of patriotism. Throughout the forenoon the rain was heavy and almost unceasing but soon after midday the rain stopped, and cloudy and overcast with rain are the characteristics. The bad weather proved no bar for citizens in long lines were gathered at the various polling stations at an early hour, remaining until they saw their ballots deposited when they gave place to others constantly arriving. There has been no disturbances thus far reported. The same conditions apply to Brooklyn which has a registration of nearly 100,000 voters. In the interior and northern part of the State the weather is clear. No trouble is reported from any quarter out of town.

NEW YORK, Nov 7.—A special order was sent out by the board of police to all captains of precincts, this forenoon as follows: "Notify the inspectors of election that they will not unnecessarily delay the vote," but the U. S. marshals continue to challenge the unauthorized vote, a list of whose names they have, and to make arrests when necessary.

OSWEGO, Nov 7.—City complete Tilden, 220 majority.

KINGSTON, Nov 7.—City Tilden, 524 majority.

HUDSON, Nov 7.—Tilden 202 majority.

BINGHAMPTON, Nov 7.—City complete Hayes, 89 majority.

SYRACUSE, Nov 7.—A large number of arrests were made in this city for illegal voting. Among those arrested for bribery is Michael Aver, U. S. marshal.

COHOES, Nov 7.—City complete, Tilden 192 majority.

NEWBURG, Nov 1.—City complete Hayes 220 majority.

NEW YORK, Nov 7.—In this city 270 election districts give Tilden 24 000 majority.

NEW YORK, Nov 7.—In this city 210 election districts give Tilden 21 000 majority, indicating a majority of about 50 000 in the city. Scattering returns from the interior show Republican gains over the vote in 1872.

POTSDAM, N. Y., Nov 7.—Hayes, 830 majority. Republican gain, 10.

AUBURN, Nov 7.—Hayes 160 majority.

ELMIRA, Nov 7.—Tilden, 10 majority.

AUBURN, N. Y., Nov 7.—The vote so far shows Republican gains. The weather is very pleasant and a heavy vote will be polled.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—New York county Tilden, 112,208, Hayes 58,650. Tilden's majority, 53 550.

Three hundred and sixteen towns outside of New York and Brooklyn show a net Democratic gain of 3 536. Brooklyn probably is 12 000 Democratic.

Tilden's majority in Kings county, including Brooklyn, 17,983.

Buffalo City gives a Democratic gain of 3417.

NEW YORK, Nov 7, 10 P. M.—Later returns now render it probable that Tilden has carried New York State as well as Connecticut.

ELLICOTT, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Hayes, 836 maj.

NEW YORK, Nov 7.—Returns from 176 election districts outside of New York, compared with the Presidential vote of 1872, give a total Democratic gain of 5,658, Republican gain, 3,510, net Democratic gain, 2,148.

ROME, N. Y., Nov 7.—Tilden 450 majority, Democratic gain, 308.

DUNKIRK, N. Y., Nov 7.—Tilden 227 majority.

UTICA, N. Y., Nov 7.—City complete Tilden 94 majority—a Democratic gain of 319.

NEW YORK, Nov 7.—Three hundred and ninety election districts of this city give Tilden 86,291, and Hayes 38,440.

A Trick of the Trade.

About 2 o'clock it was discovered the Republicans were distributing Democratic electoral tickets headed with the names of Tilden and Hendricks, with all the Republican electoral ticket underneath, which created intense excitement among the Democrats. A large number of these tickets were torn up by Democratic agents but it is thought there are some thousands of them in the box.

Arresting Crooked Voters.

NEW YORK, Nov 7.—The U S Marshals were busy all this forenoon looking out for those who having registered illegally, might attempt to vote, and by noon fully five hundred were captured and taken before the Supervisor of elections who disposed of them in batches of 25. The top floor of the postoffice forms the prison pen, and the court room presents a curious spectacle. One elevator is used to carry the captured repeaters from the street to their quarters and it is kept busy. A few of those arrested offer resistance, but they have to go with their captors. Those who registered illegally under misapprehension or through ignorance are discharged, but the known repeaters are promptly consigned to prison.

What the Greenback Party Did.

The greenback party put up boxes but nearly all of them were abandoned early in the day.

Massachusetts—Butler's District.

BOSTON, Nov 7.—The unpleasant weather does not interfere with a large vote being polled in Butler's district, and the indications are that he will be elected over both competitors, though Judge Hoar is receiving some unexpected support.

BOSTON, Nov 7.—In 96 towns in Massachusetts Hayes has 30 230, Tilden 21 956, Rice 32-764, Adams 21 153, Baker 3 002. Returns so far received according to Republican estimate indicate the election of Governor Rice by a good majority. The election of Banks (Rep) in the 5th Congressional district, of Butler (Rep) in the 7th, Crapo (Rep) in the 1st, Barnes (Rep) in the 2d, Field (Rep) in the 3d, Claflin (Rep) in the 8th and Norcross (Rep) in the 10th is probable. The other Congressional district are doubtful, and the above results may be changed by later returns.

Returns as far as received give Frothingham (Dem) for Congress in the 5th district a majority of 1 003 over Gen Banks and the latter's defeat is claimed.

Leopold Morse (Dem) is probably elected to Congress in the 4th district by a small majority. The election of Claflin (Rep) in the 8th Congressional district, Harris (Rep) in the 2d and Loring (Rep) in the 6th is claimed by the Traveller.

One hundred and twenty three towns: Hayes 51 799, Tilden 31 601.

BOSTON, Nov 7.—One hundred and sixty five towns and cities give Hayes 60 803, Tilden 43 4[illegible], Rice 61 [illegible]81, Adams 41 381, Baker 5 881. Following is the vote of Boston all but one ward: Hayes 19 138, Tilden 22,206, Rice, 11 073, Adams 21 575, Baker 1 115.

BOSTON, Nov 7.—Returns indicate a very heavy vote. One hundred and twenty three towns gave Hayes 51 134, Tilden 41 601, Rice, 47 308.

Rhode Island

PROVIDENCE, Nov 7.—Partial returns from all parts of the State show Hayes will have from 5 000 to 6 000 majority.

Alabama

MONTGOMERY, Ala, Nov 7.—Election quiet throughout the State. As far as heard from Hayes' majority in this city will be 1 000. The [illegible] [illegible] indicate a large Democratic majority in the State. It is safe to say seven Democratic Congressmen are elected.

New Jersey

NEW JERSEY, Nov 7.—The State has gone Democratic by 15 000.

Iowa

Iowa goes Republican by 40 000 and elects all members of Congress.

Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Nov 7.—The city vote up to noon to-day is light, the Democratic ticket leading three to one. The State not heard from.

Nebraska.

OMAHA, Nov 7.—The election passed off quietly. A heavy vote was polled. No returns yet in from the State. Straight tickets only counted in the city show a Democratic plurality.

Quiet Election and Large Vote

CINCINNATI, Nov [7].—Business is almost entirely suspended and a very large vote is being polled. The indications are that the vote to-day will be quite an increase over that of October. Everything quiet as far as heard from.

ST LOUIS, Nov 7.—Election is passing with unusual quietness throughout the city and a heavy vote is being polled. Not a breach of the peace or even an angry discussion and not a single arrest has yet been reported and indications are that there will not be the slightest disturbance during the day. No indications of the result can be given at this writing but both sides are working hard for their respective candidates.

PROVIDENCE (R. I.), Nov 7.—The election is progressing briskly considering the heavy rain which is, however, so much needed that it adds an element of cheerfulness.

New Hampshire.

CONCORD, Nov 7.—Three hundred and fifty towns and cities give Hayes 5 944, Tilden 5 172. In 1872 the same places gave Grant 5 314. Seventy towns and cities give Hayes 12 054, Tilden, 11 371. In 1872 the same places gave Grant 10 975, Greeley 9,684. Republican net loss in these places 308.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov 7.—The election in this city is quiet. The vote polled in the central wards up to noon was much larger than that of previous years. The following was the last count before noon: ward 4, Hayes 323, Tilden 200; ward 5, Hayes 310, Tilden 149; ward 6, Hayes 295, Tilden 125; ward 7, Hayes 109, Tilden 94.

CONCORD, Nov 7.—One hundred and fifty towns and counties gives Hayes 19 625, Tilden, 17 289. In 1872 the same places gave Grant 17 366, Greeley 14 675.

Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov 7.—The city is Republican by 15 200.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov 7.—A heavy vote has been polled up to this hour, and indications are that the day's vote will be far larger than usual. From the vote up to noon the Republican leaders estimate that Philadelphia county will give a majority of 25,000 for the Republicans.

Georgia.

Georgia is Democratic by 50 000 or 60,000

Illinois.

CHICAGO, Nov 7.—Returns from 23 towns in Illinois give Hayes 4 339, Tilden, 3 484, Cooper, 84. Republican gain over the vote for governor in 1872 of 1 234 and Democratic gain 1,369, being a net Democratic gain of 84. Becker 49.

CAIRO, Ill., Nov. 7.—Cairo gives 52 majority for Tilden. Democratic gain 230.

CHICAGO, Nov 7.—Partial returns from 17 counties in Iowa show a Republican gain of 714, Democratic gain 52, net Republican gain, 662.

CHICAGO, Nov 7.—The weather has been threatening up to this hour, 3 P. M., but reports from all parts of the city indicate that the polls are crowded in every precinct, and the election is proceeding quietly though earnestly. It is said at the Republican Head quarters that the Republicans will, without doubt, elect Aldrich and Davis from the first and second congressional districts, and probably Brentano in the third, though many Germans are scratching his name. The Democrats claim that all three of their nominees, Hoxie, Harrison and Lemoine, will be elected. A dispatch from Elgin says the Democrats are polling their full strength for Farnsworth, that Hurlbut the bolting Republican is receiving a very small vote. Lathrop is apparently ahead of both—he seems certain of election to Congress from that district.

CHICAGO, Nov 7.—Eleven precincts in this city and thirty nine towns in the interior of the State gives Hayes, 13 290, Tilden, 10 397—a small Democratic gain over the vote for Governor in 1872, when the State went Republican by over 50,000. There is no doubt of a large Republican majority now in the State.

Further returns from Illinois show Republican gains.

ROCKFORD, Nov 7.—Tilden's majority in Richmond will be 1 500. Returns from surrounding counties show Democratic gains over the vote of 1874. The only close contests for Congress are in the second and fourth districts. The remaining seven districts will elect Democratic Congressmen. Few returns received from the second district show good Democratic gains over the Governor's vote of 1874.

CHICAGO, Nov 7.—Returns from eighty two towns in the State of Illinois give Hayes, 23 881, Tilden 19 601, Cooper 321—net Democratic gain 4 971.

Twenty townships in Illinois show generally Republican majorities.

CHICAGO, Nov 7.—The vote for Cooper in some interior counties is nearly equal to that of Tilden.

Iowa by an Old Fashioned Majority.

A dispatch from Des Moines says the Republicans are confident of carrying Iowa by an old fashioned majority of about 40 000. A prominent Republican says he has advices from many important districts in Illinois tending to show that the Germans are voting for Tilden but giving their votes for the Republican State tickets.

Business Suspended for the Election.

WASHINGTON, Nov 7.—There is very little business being transacted in the departments to-day, nearly all the chief officials and a proportion of the clerks being absent in their respective States voting. Deep interest is manifested throughout the city concerning the Presidential election and crowds are already gathering around the telegraph and newspaper offices.

Connecticut

HARTFORD, Nov 7.—38 towns give Hayes 8 367, Tilden 7 601, Robinson (Rep) 7 375, Hubbard (Dem) 6 805. Last spring these towns gave Robinson (Rep) 6 112, Ingersoll (Dem) 6 514. The Republican majority is 505 against a Democratic majority last year of 402. Republican gain 907. This includes no city. Hartford gives a plurality of 980. Democratic majority for Governor last spring was 636. Democratic gain in the city 313. Meriden gives Hayes 27 majority, a Democratic loss of 218.

HARTFORD, Nov 7.—Connecticut is Democratic by 5 000. County probably 2 500 Democratic majority.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov 7.—Fifty-nine townships, including Meriden, the only city yet reporting, gives Hayes 14 0[illegible], Tilden 1[illegible] 335. Hayes' majority 1 065. A LITTLE DISPUTE WITH A PANTHER.—John Ake, of Cold creek, was in the woods hunting, and had forgotten his gun, but his knife [was with him]. His dogs were along and he felt at home. The dogs treed a large panther in a clear tree. Ake tried to bring his game down with a rock, but the panther refused to come down. So the old man placed his knife in his mouth and climbed the tree. The panther showed his teeth. The old man could not get near enough with safety to use his knife, but as the beast sat perched its tail hung dangling down. Ake seized it and the pair fell to the ground, the old man falling on top. The dogs hit in and the hunter ended the dispute with his knife.—Galveston News.

FINEST HOTEL IN THE WORLD

GRANDER THAN THE GRAND AND MORE PALATIAL THAN THE PALACE—BALDWIN'S SAN FRANCISCO.

In the Alta of a recent date we find a full description of the building and furnishment of The Baldwin House of San Francisco, which gives the reader an idea of the commodiousness and elegance of a hotel that even surpasses the Palace in everything but size, and is probably for pure elegance and completeness of detail the equal of any hotel on the globe. The Alta's description is very lengthy and we have room only for a few extracts.

THE BUILDING

Occupies the irregular-shaped lot bounded by Market, Powell and Ellis streets, and has a frontage of 184 feet on Market, 23 feet on Eddy, 275 feet on Powell and 138 feet on Ellis street. The basement of the building is entirely brick and iron. The outside walls have a thickness of 3 feet 2 inches, with footings 9 feet wide. The interior walls and walls of the theater have a thickness of 3 feet 2 inches, with footings 7 feet wide. All the piers are capped with granite slabs 10 inches thick, supporting the iron work of first story. All cross and partition walls and interior supports are of brick laid in cement, and 10 inch cast iron heavy columns, no woodwork whatever being used in basement. The sidewalk, vaults, boiler and engine rooms, coal bunks, etc., all constructed of iron beams and brick arches. The first story of the building is entirely iron, both the exterior and interior columns, the exterior front being doubled, having 12 inch heavy cast-iron columns, with 12 inch cast iron square pilasters. This frontage is capped and surmounted with a row of heavy cast iron lintels of the "Hodgkinson pattern," 26 inches high, 22 inches wide, and with an average thickness of 2 inch metal, with double heads, bolted together with wrought iron bolts.

THE FIRE PRECAUTIONS.

In the fire-proof vaults and engine-rooms are located the fire-pumps, four in number, independent of the house supply of pumps. Seven fire plugs on each story of the hotel, with 150 feet of hose, are located in positions to command all parts of each story and stairway. On the outside of the building five lines of galvanized wrought-iron pipe, corporation size, extend from the level of the sidewalk up to and over the roof of the building, and this is supplied with fire plugs at the bottom and on the level of each story and on the roof, with 200 feet of hose attached, coiled and ready for instant use. The following is a list of fire hose and pipe in the building: 14,000 feet of 2½-inch fire hose, 15,000 feet of 2-inch fire hose, gas, steam and galvanized pipe, 64,-000 feet, rubber-coated water pipe, [illegible] feet, cast-iron soil pipe, 9,600 feet; sewer pipe, 8,500 feet. To complete the fire arrangements and arrangements, Mr. Baldwin has contracted with the Telegraphic Supply Company, of Cleveland, Ohio, and under special specification, it has provided 610 thermostats, or fire detectors, one of which is to be placed in every room, lobby, loft and chamber, to the [illegible] lantern of the main dome. The [illegible] communicators extend down to the hotel annunciator, which is fitted with alarm bells, and thence down to the engineer's department.

THE FIRST FLOOR.

The ground floor is arranged to contain the main office—the principal entrance being from Powell street, with side halls leading from Market and Ellis streets. The billiard, bar, barber shop, reading and writing rooms, and telegraph office, each of which is spacious, and will be fitted up in becoming style, are also situated on this floor. The balance of the space will be laid out in stores fronting Market and Ellis st.

The hotel office will contain a new [illegible] not yet introduced in any large hotel in this country. No lounging, sitting or smoking will be allowed, and the fair sex, as they enter, can walk direct to the counter and transact their business without the intervention of stupid call boys. Flowers will be placed in convenient stands. A grand marble staircase will lead directly from the office, as well as the entrance to the elevators. The stairs will be composed of heavy marble blades and [illegible], inlaid platform, with heavily carved ballusters, rail and newel.

The bar, billiard room, reading room—and in fact all the ground floor of the hotel, will be finished with marble tiling, hardwood wainscoting, frescoes, silver and gilt chandeliers, mirrors, pneumatic clocks and all the paraphernalia required to accomplish the one grand object: Elegance.

THE NOVEL ELEVATORS.

The latest improvements in elevators have been secured for "The Baldwin." There will be three. The smallest will be used merely for sending cards and packages from the office to the service rooms on the different floors. It will be run by electricity. The Otis elevator engines will supply the motive power for the baggage elevator as well as for the one designed for passengers. This latter is situated in the centre well of the grand staircase, and is run from the ground floor to the conservatory in the dome. Its design is taken from the latest Parisian novelty—an open car. It is partially enclosed with clear plate, embossed glass, mirrors and hard woods, the intention and design being to allow the passengers to see and be seen in their ascent and descent.

THE SECOND FLOOR

Of the house, or as it is generally termed in hotel parlance, the "first floor," contains numerous suites of apartments and single rooms, together with the ladies' reception room, public parlor, dining room and service rooms.

The dining room has not its equal in any hotel in the United States, as regards situation and appointments. It fronts on the street, and instead of receiving the sun and air from a skylight, it obtains a more than sufficient quantity from the open windows, if desirable. This is one great advantage that this house possesses over all others—the cheerful aspect of this room. Here a person could eat against his will, almost, just for an excuse to remain in it. The floor is laid in English encaustic tile of a beautiful mosaic pattern, or rather patterns, for each compartment is different in this respect from the other. The room is divided into three compartments by clusters of columns, and finished between the latter by mirrors, statuary and hangings. Flowers will decorate the windows, frescoes the walls and ceiling.

The ladies' entrance from Powell street leads opposite to the main elevator and adjoins the reception room. The head of the staircase is surmounted with balustrade, elegant newels, bronze figures with crystal standing lights and immense mirrors behind the same, which are so placed as to double the surroundings.

The principal staircase will be lighted for its entire length of six stories by stained glass windows.

The service room is a new feature in hotels. A caller hands his card to the clerk in the office; there is no clanging of bell or screaching of "front" until the gentleman behind the counter loses his voice. He simply deposits his card in the electric elevator; it ascends to the desired elevation, is then sent by the boy in charge and answer whistled down before the visitor has time to think of the matter.

THE UPPER STORIES

There is really no difference in the appearance of the third, fourth and fifth stories, as compared with each other. They form the main body of the hotel and are arranged in suits of three rooms and two rooms, respectively, with bath and water closets, clothes rooms etc., and after the style of the Windsor House, of New York City, they have communicating doors throughout the entire girt of the building—over 640 feet. This arrangement is made with the double intention of providing against fire and the coupling or duplicating the suites of apartments so that any guest can be accommodated with any number of communicating rooms he may [illegible].

The suits are separated by doors fitted with double locks, a key-hole [illegible] the door only being perforated [illegible]

The most striking [feature] [illegible] of the building is, that there is no [such thing] as a dark closet or bath room [illegible] all perfectly aired and [illegible] [perpen]dicular shafts running from the [top of the] building to the second floor. COUNTING THE ELECTORAL VOTE

On the second Wednesday of February the electoral vote will be counted in accordance with the provisions of the constitution and laws relating to that subject, which are as follows

"The President of the Senate shall in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates and the votes shall then be counted The person having the greatest number of votes for President shall be President if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed, and if no person have such majority then from the persons having the highest numbers, not exceeding three on the list of those voted for as President, the House of Representatives shall choose immediately by ballot the President. Congress shall be in session on the second Wednesday in February succeeding every meeting of the electors, and the certificates or so many of them as have been received, shall then be opened the votes counted and the persons to fill the offices of President and Vice President ascertained and declared agreeably to the constitution"

Some apprehension has been expressed that difficulty might arise in the counting of the vote of some of the Southern States where it is claimed, on the one hand, that the elections are carried by intimidation and violence, and on the other that they are illegally controlled by [illegible]. But it is scarcely likely that such trouble will arise. The [illegible] of the country is setting [illegible] in favor of peace [illegible] that no party will [illegible] attempt a proceeding so revolutionary as it would be to exclude returns [illegible] up by any State Such attempt would be put down by popular indignation, if [illegible] no higher motives [illegible] will restrain themselves [illegible] which such an attempt [illegible] have on the future of [illegible] will recognise the [illegible], intense may be the [illegible] either party for [illegible] of their candidates, they love [illegible] and would not brook any course [illegible] which would involve the country in [illegible] and strife

EASTERN QUESTION

[illegible] these indicate such an [illegible] the Eastern question as will [illegible] advantages she may [illegible] throughout [illegible] which have just ended [illegible] for an armistice, that [illegible] of the field, while the [illegible] were willing to accede to [illegible] demand, only so the [illegible] be pressed. Her [illegible] widely in scope and [illegible] the plans of settlement [illegible] by any other of the in[illegible] acquainted with [illegible] that is tanta[illegible] matter in the [illegible] to be adjusted by him [illegible] deem expedient, [illegible] that the ad[illegible] to be reached [illegible]. In fact, [illegible] Italy, were as [illegible] large lady as per[illegible] as if they [illegible] in connection [illegible]. Their names appear [illegible] weights to give [illegible] and England [illegible] important was England [illegible]. Her traditional [illegible] designs on South[illegible] to have settled [illegible] to have such secu[illegible] of the Otto[illegible] give for the [illegible] of Turkish bonds [illegible] is held. It has been [illegible] the outcome of [illegible] the Turkish capital [illegible] for her retinue [illegible] of a road for Russia [illegible] with a secret under[illegible] her and England that [illegible] responsible for the [illegible] the bonds of the Otto[illegible] in the late [illegible] plausibility to [illegible]

[illegible]CTION.

[illegible] at this office [illegible] the statement [illegible] yesterday that he [illegible] the inside organization [illegible] organization was [illegible] Capt Cabalin rushes [illegible] style altogether more [illegible] to denounce the statement [illegible] a committeeman ap[illegible] improperly, as a [illegible] at the denial of these [illegible] cheerfully retract the [illegible] Cabalin had kept his [illegible] a correction in this [illegible] have saved the labor it [illegible] If ridiculous, for [illegible] found out by this time [illegible] never misrepresents [illegible] and never refuses [illegible] to any person it has in[illegible] the Captain's hasty [illegible] shall not stand between him [illegible]

[illegible] ourselves, however, requires [illegible] the information upon which [illegible] statements, which now appear [illegible] unfounded, was received [illegible] of high standing who [illegible] thoroughly investigated [illegible] and that his report was cor[illegible]. He had been misled, and [illegible] misled the OREGONIAN. [illegible] will add that since the infor[illegible] the organization proves [illegible] incorrect as to the gentle[illegible], it was, very likely, equally [illegible] the rest. The gentlemen thus [illegible] in a false position do not regret it [illegible]

THE ELECTION

[illegible] city, the election passed off very [illegible], no disturbances being reported [illegible] crowds centered at the pre[illegible] Couch, South Portland and Mor[illegible] particularly the latter, where [illegible] vote was polled The result [illegible] everybody, as the county was [illegible] to give Hayes and Wheeler [illegible] majority Williams will do [illegible] if not fully, as well, though there [illegible] scratching. Bulletins were [illegible] at this office and at Blum's corner, where large crowds assembled to hear the returns. Returns from the East came in rather slowly and great anxiety was expressed about the result in New York Tables elsewhere will indicate the vote as far as heard from, in the county, State and abroad

THE ELECTION

Election returns from the East are not sufficiently full to enable us to present our readers anything like an accurate table but enough is known to render it highly probable Tilden is elected Taking the Northwestern States which seem pretty surely to have gone Democratic and the doubtful Southern States which are reported for him—Florida and North Carolina—and those Southern States which were from the first counted as sure for Tilden and he has 188 electoral votes—three more than the number necessary to a choice This leaves Louisiana and California out of the count the latter of which is claimed by the Democrats here, upon the authority of private dispatches, which report the State Democratic These however, are probably mere estimates The subject is not a pleasant one, and we pass from it to the narrower field of our own State, which presents a more cheerful picture

This State has gone Republican, electing Williams to Congress, and the Republican electors The majority is probably 500 to 700 Complete returns may reduce it, or may run it up to 1,000

Multnomah county has given an agreeable surprise to the Republicans themselves, none of whom placed its majority so high, in their estimates, as it has turned out to be Marion county also is reported to have done better than was expected

Efforts are making in Germany to induce the government to increase the silver coinage It is alleged that the subsidiary currency is inadequate to meet the wants of business. The government is very desirous that gold shall be substituted for silver in the Indian trade The large shipments of silver from the United States to Asia it is hoped by the government, will have a tendency to turn commercial opinion there to the subject of the advantages of gold and silver as a medium of exchange and thus produce agitation in favor of the demonetization of silver, except for small payments

THE FIFTH OF MARCH

HISTORICAL PRECEDENT FOR THE INAUGURATION DAY

The 4th of March, next year, falls upon a Sunday, and the question has been asked, when will the next President be inaugurated—on Sunday, the 4th, or on Monday, the 5th? The question has already been settled by historical precedent.

The Constitution provides that the President and Vice President of the United States shall hold their offices during the term of four years, but no provision was made by the framers of that instrument when the four years' term should commence. By act of Congress, passed September 13, 1788—the Constitution at that time having been ratified by a sufficient number of States—the time set for the inauguration of the first President of the United States and the commencement of the working of the new Constitution was the first Wednesday in March, 1789, that being the 4th of March. In fact, however, the inauguration of President Washington did not take place until Wednesday, April 30th, eight weeks after the designated time. In more than one history it has been erroneously stated that the Constitution went into effect and the inauguration took place on the 4th of March, that being neither the day appointed nor the actual day of either event.

Before the second term of President Washington the day for commencing the term of office was changed. The act of March 1, 1792, provided that the four years for which a President and Vice President shall be elected shall in all cases commence on the 4th day of March next succeeding the day on which the votes of the electors shall have been given The 4th of March, 1793, on which by law the second term of President Washington commenced, fell on a Sunday. We have not before us anything stating exactly the day on which Washington took the oath of office but from his known character, and from the course of after proceedings in similar cases, we have little doubt his second inauguration was on Monday, March 5th

The next occurrence of the 4th of March in Presidential year falling on a Sunday was in 1821, when President Monroe commenced his second term The inauguration was on Monday, the 5th The National Intelligencer of March 6th, describes the scene, and said the oath was administered by Chief Justice Marshall The proceedings took place in the House of Representatives

The third occurrence of this kind was in 1849, when President Taylor was inaugurated In this instance, also, the ceremonies took place on Monday, the 5th of March.

Next year the President elect will, therefore, be inaugurated on Monday, the 5th of March, instead of Sunday, the 4th There is, we believe, no special law bearing on the subject but the proceedings follow the general rule that for legal purposes Sunday is a dies non and Saturday, the 3d of March, therefore only ends when Monday, the 5th of March begins This rule is followed in Congressional proceedings, where it has happened that Saturday a sitting has been prolonged until Monday, the records showing no evidence of part of the proceedings having taken place on Sunday

Every seventh Presidential term the 4th of March, on which the term should commence, falls upon Sunday Unless there should be a change in the duration of the term the coincidence will not again occur until the year 1905 —Cleveland Herald

THE YOUNG LADY AND THE CAR WINDOW — It requires six men to put up the average car window. A young lady gets in—it is always a young lady who wants the windows up—and, having humped around in her seat for about five minutes she turns and requests the gentleman just behind her to perform that service This is a near-sighted individual who peers around the window frame some time for the catch and then—of course the window sticks—jerks his finger nail half off and sits down with a red face amid the giggling of the school girls opposite Next the man in the front seat is pressed into service This party puts his lavender colored knee on a paper of cherries beside him clutches and yanks at the knob and finally falls over in the young lady's lap amid a cloud of dust The cause of all this misery now remarks that it doesn't matter and then smiles sweetly at a pale young man with long hair reading the Waverley This martyr turns white rises and buttons up his coat for the death struggle On the eleventh pull he bursts a blood vessel somewhere and goes into the toilet compartment to bleed A simple minded mechanic now comes forward with his tool bag from which he takes a crowbar Just when he is about to use this the conductor happens by and slides the window up with a gentle twist of the wrist Five seconds afterward the female turns up her nose at the cinders and the window is brought down by the peanut boy—as volunteers

There has been another dreadful scandal in England over clerical vestments. Early in October anniversary exercises of the [illegible] society were held in St George's church [illegible] Forsea Archdeacon Wright who preached the annual sermon had been requested by the Rev Mr Curtis to wear a black gown and had kindly consented to do so. [illegible] however in a moment of forgetfulness he ascended the pulpit in his surplice and his appearance in this costume so shocked Mr Curtis that he left the church saying that he could not remain to hear a sermon by one who had thus broken his word The matter was referred to at the annual dinner in the evening, when the Archdeacon remarked that he should be quite ready to preach in his short sleeves if he thought it would do any good to his hearers.

BRIEF NOTES.

Shipping lively now.

Steamer Ajax arrived.

Time to dig your potatoes.

Election returns pouring in.

A bright, cold day was yesterday.

Yesterday was a non-judicial day.

"See the leaves around us falling."

The election passed off very quietly.

No State Circuit Court until the 15th inst.

Plenty of Oregon grapes now in the market.

The cold weather is bringing the river down.

The Ellen Bank is lying at the O. S. S. Co.'s wharf.

Coal is still being heaved into the Tam O'Shanter.

Old 1876 will soon be gathered with his forefathers.

At a quarter past 3 o'clock the steamer gun was heard.

The steamer Ajax will sail hence next Saturday morning.

The matter was settled yesterday, and the figures will tell the tale.

Some needed repairs are being made to the First Presbyterian Church.

A new shaft is to be placed in the steamer Champion, and a new wheel built.

Yesterday was all bustle and activity. To-day a great peace has settled down over the community.

As election is over, the head of the family will soon commence looking out for a thanksgiving turkey.

Lieut. Thos. Garvey, 1st Cavalry, formerly stationed at Fort Walla Walla, is in Chicago on recruiting service.

Lieut. Frank K. Upham assumed the duties of post quartermaster at Fort Walla Walla on the 1st day of November.

The concert last Sabbath afternoon at Plymouth church by the Sabbath school, was both largely attended and interesting.

J. B. Montgomery, the contractor, has a force of men at work removing obstructions in the Columbia river at the Umatilla Rapids.

Gen. Cuvier Grover, Colonel of the 1st cavalry, was expected to arrive at Fort Walla Walla last Saturday to take command of the post and his regiment.

Buckley, the man who cut Wool with an ax about a week ago, was discharged yesterday in the Police Court, the examination proving that the assault was committed in self-defense.

All orderly and law abiding citizens must admit that the law prohibiting the sale of liquor on election days is one of the best and most wholesome enactments ever passed by the Legislature of this State.

Bishop E. M. Marvin, of the M. E. Church south, who was here some weeks ago, recently left San Francisco on the steamer Alaska, for Yokohama and Shanghai, on a tour of the world in the interest of the missionary work of that church.

OREGON.

The trial of McEmerick, for shooting a man by the name of Gordon, who lived on the Walla Walla river in Umatilla county, Oregon, took place at Pendleton this week. The jury were out about 16 hours, and then came into court and rendered a verdict of not guilty.

The Sentinel says: The people of LaGrande were at first disposed to think their loss was very trivial when they learned that he who had so long been known as E. O. Crandall had absconded. Judge of their horror, however, on ascertaining a few days later that he had carried away the offices of constable, city marshal and road supervisor. It's no wonder the poor fellow left, but it is evident that he did not run away. No person could run and carry such a load. He is said to have two wives and two names.

BELIEF IN THE DEVIL.—The Albany Law Journal says that it finds some amusing passages in the full report of the English case of Jenkins against Cook, in which the question was whether a clergyman had the right to exclude from communion a parishioner who did not believe in the devil. The Archbishop of York inquired, "Are we not trying a clerk, and is not canon law applicable?" To which the Lord Chancellor replied, Yankee fashion, by asking, "Suppose the canons declare that a clergyman should not administer the sacrament to persons whose names begin with A, would that take away the statutory right?" The amount of unnecessary vexation which this obstinate Jenkins has caused his clergyman and the Privy Council can be appreciated when we read that his clergyman had explicitly declared, "Let Mr. Jenkins, as he cannot sit down and talk like a man, write me a letter—a calm letter and say he believes in the devil, and I will give him the sacrament." The idea of a calm letter announcing one's belief in the devil reminds us of an old picture in Punch representing a man sitting for his photograph and the artist saying to him, "Now, my dear sir, fix your eyes here and assume a more cheerful expression, at the same time pointing to an advertisement on the wall, 'Horrible murder! £500 reward!'" After this unreasonable decision there was but one thing left for a self-respecting clergyman to do, and that was to leave the parish and Jenkins to their own destruction and seek another field, and he accordingly did so, as the newspapers inform us.

NOVEL CURE FOR LOVE.—A new and amusing cure for love has lately been found effective in a fashionable Parisian quarter. The son of a wealthy nobleman became enamored of his father's chambermaid, and determined to marry her. The aristocratic papa opposed, but moved at last by the despair of his son, gave his consent, with the provision that the smitten youth should go to sea twelve months before the marriage. Shortly after his departure, the father, who had previously observed a stoutness and fatness in the young intended, took her under his special charge, gave her the most nourishing food and wines, forbade her to take exercise as unbecoming his future daughter, and, in fact, stall-fed her to such an extent that when the enamored swain returned from his year's voyage, he was horrified to find, instead of the slender, elegant girl he left, an immense fat woman, large enough to put in a museum. Of course the ruse was successful, and the unfortunate victim of good cheer has been pensioned off.

Ed. Biedleman, a young printer at Walla Walla, had five teeth knocked out by a wild horse jumping against a fence, near which he was standing. One of the rails was knocked off and against Mr. Biedleman's face.

Clothing, clothing, clothing! at Kohn's.

The season for coughs and colds is rapidly approaching, and every one should be prepared to check the first symptoms, as a cough contracted between now and Christmas frequently lasts all winter. There is no better remedy than Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. For all diseases of the throat and lungs it should be used internally and externally.

Lung fever, common cold, catarrhal fever, and nasal discharge of a brownish color in horses, may be checked at once by liberal use of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders.

Ulsters, ulsters, ulsters! at Kohn's.

August Flower.

The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects; such as Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Heart-burn, Water brash, Gnawing and Burning Pains at the Pit of the Stomach, Yellow Skin, Coated Tongue and Disagreeable Taste in the Mouth, Coming up of Food after Eating, Low Spirits, etc. Go to your Druggist and get a Sample Bottle for a bit; large size 75 cents. Try it—Two doses will relieve you. Agents' Crane & Brigham, Wholesale Druggists, San Francisco.

Parties wishing oysters by the hundred will find it to their interest to call at C. A. Malarkey's poultry, fish and game market, as the oyster chief, Roscoe, is there opening the delicious bivalves.

W. L. ADAMS, M. D., A. M., LL. D., corner of First and Salmon streets, is curing the most inveterate chronic diseases of all kinds at a low price, by medicated, electric lightning cream baths, and by combining the German and French with the American improved practice. His treatment is, in the main, entirely original, and works almost miracles, as his numerous patients will attest. Is extraordinarily successful in treating female complaints.

Sore eyes speedily relieved. The worst form of piles cured, and the most malignant cancers eradicated root and branch without the use of the knife, or the money refunded.

New and elegant designs in Stamping Patterns, just received at Butterick's Pattern Agency, No. 50 Morrison street.

THE THIRD DAY

Was a beautiful day, and the attendance at the track was better. The first race was a trotting race for all horses that had never beaten 2:50, for a purse of $150, mile heats, best 3 in 5. For this purse the following entries were made: Wm. Glasford named Osgood, Lute Lindsey named Ida Lindsey and H. Nelson named Blue Mountain Boy. This day there will be a running race, three-quarter mile heats, best 2 in 3, for a purse of $150. This afternoon the

TROTTING RACE

For a purse of $500, mile heats, best 3 in 5, will come off. So far the entries embrace Parrott, Startle and Lewiston. The Regimental Band, 1st Cavalry, will be on the grounds during the day and enliven the proceedings by the rendition of a number of favorite airs. A large concourse of people should patronize the races to day, as they will be well contested and worthy of witnessing.

The Welfare of the Human System

Is in a great measure dependent upon the way in which the bowels perform their evacuative function. If they are regular and they can always be rendered so by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters an important essential of health is secured, and that bl ing is very apt to follow. If they are irregular, chronic constipation and indigestion supervene, the liver becomes disordered, and the bile, being diverted from its natural channel and purposes, enters and contaminates the blood, producing that yellowish cast of the skin and whites of the eyes which is such a sure index of biliousness. All these disastrous consequences, as well as others of a far more serious nature, are remedied and prevented by Hostetter's Bitters, the leading American specific for disorders of the bowels, stomach and liver.

European Wheat Market.

LONDON, Nov 6—The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the British corn trade, says: Cold but seasonable weather of the past week has been favorable for field labor. A large quantity of wheat was sown under satisfactory conditions. The potato disease has not assumed alarming proportions, though certain localities have suffered already. Irish advices are less gloomy. At the principal provincial markets holders of wheat seriously resisted any decline. In London a slight concession was necessary; foreign wheat was not so firm, and part of the advance produced by political influences has been lost. The imports last week were unusually light, and although stocks are still large, the rate of importance is far less than estimated for the requirements of the country, and considerable diminution reported from Liverpool attests that the inroads made into the stock of maize maintains about the same. Other feeding stuffs are slightly cheaper. It is not unlikely that this decline will shortly be more than covered, in consequence of the increased winter consumption. The floating cargo trade has been quiet, in the absence of arrivals at calling ports.

OBJECTS.

This Savings Bank has been formed at the desire and under the auspices of thirty-one gentlemen, citizens of Oregon and Washington Territory who have become Stockholders therein along with certain other gentlemen in Scotland; to supply a want hitherto much felt, namely an Institution where similar to those in California, the working, farming and other classes of Oregon and Washington Territory may from time to time deposit their various savings along with the Bank's own capital for investment in Oregon and Washington Territory [to which the Bank's operations are limited] secured from Mortgages over City Properties, Farming and other Lands for the purpose thereby of assisting to develop the industries of the North Pacific coast.

The Bank's Directors and Officers in Oregon having had considerable experience in finance and real estate securities, their policy will be to guard depositors' moneys and the stockholders' capital by loaning only on first class securities, high interest being a secondary consideration. The Bank does not therefore seek to employ its funds in a commercial banking business, confining its operations strictly to those securities with which its Directors are familiarly acquainted, such as real estate loans, advances on bonds, assignments and similar securities which are not fluctuating in value; hence no loans will be made on Promissory Notes alone, or Bills of Exchange and such like.

Security to Depositors.

The security for repayment of Depositors' moneys is two-fold:

1st. Not only the mortgages, assignments, bonds and other pledges on which the Bank's deposits are carefully loaned and the real estate secured thereby, which must be located in Oregon and Washington Territory; but also,

2d. The Bank's own $300,000 capital specially pledged for the safety of depositors, in order that all losses (if any) shall be made therefrom, thus forming a double security for depositors' moneys.

No charge for entrance fee or pass books.

Deposits received from $2 50 and upwards.

Rates of interest on application.

Hours, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Certificate of Incorporation, Constitution, Articles of Association, Regulations and By laws for depositors, may be seen at the Bank's office.

By order of Directors.
